Brief Project Description (300 Characters)	Production and installation of brand new 'Street pods' across Milton Keynes
Full Project Description	Milton Keynes Council has completed the installation of several brand new 'Street pods' across Milton Keynes. The free to use Street pods, located in the city centre are now in service and ready to provide 'diamond rated' bike safety for cyclists. The pods which can hold two bikes in a high/low design to avoid handlebar clashes, were produced by Waterman Aspen secondee Joel Amen. Each front wheel fits neatly into a secure shell made from recycled materials that contain a ring of reinforced solid steel, and the back wheel and frame can be additionally secured through the steel ring using the cyclist's own D-lock.
