Work programme!

This will be your first journey into the world of work and we are thrilled to have you on board. Your experience will be with us.

There will be lots for you to see, do and learn during your time here – with a strong focus on developing your essential skills.

We hope you finish the programme feeling inspired for the future and the choices that lie ahead.

Most importantly enjoy it and make the most of the opportunity – perhaps we will be seeing some of you again in the near future!

About Amey

Amey is a leading infrastructure services and engineering company.

We are at the heart of modern Britain, helping the economy to grow by designing, maintaining, and transforming the nation's strategic assets.

Our 14,000 people are behind the critical services the country relies on every day and we each take personal pride in our public service.

Our unique engineering and operations experience, together with data driven insight from our consulting business, delivers better results for our clients.

We are trusted partners of Government – both national and local – managing assets and complex projects that are vital to the sustainable growth of the country.

ESSENTIAL SKILLS

The Essential Skills Framework is a consistent, universal approach to a set of essential skills important for individuals to thrive in education, employment and entrepreneurship. These are the transferable skills which 'almost everyone needs to do almost any job. They are the skills that make specific knowledge and technical skills fully productive'. We define the essential skills as:

- Listening
- Speaking
- Problem Solving
- Creativity
- Teamwork
- Leadership
- Learning
- Working

CV task

Now its time to create your own CV. Use the content on the website and ask your People Manager to provide you with a copy of a good CV to help you.

Interview task

At the end of your work experience, your People Manager will do a mock interview with you for the job you've been doing. Don't forget to prepare for the interview and ask your People Manager for some constructive feedback.
