

Midlands Highway Alliance
Driving Collaboration

> MHA Annual Report

Peter Barclay
MHA Manager

> 2015/16

Highlights of the year

- New members – Buckinghamshire
- New PSP2 framework awarded to AECOM
- Website revamped and Collaborative platform developed
- Learning management system developed

Assets Standards and Commodities

- Low Temperature Asphalt guidance
- Climate Change Adaptation
- Transport Models survey
- Supply chain engagement
- BIM

Medium Schemes Framework

- Procurement savings
- Pipeline of work.
- Framework Community Board
- Early Contractor Involvement
- Case studies

Professional Services

- Joint venture between AECOM and Waterman Aspen.
- Electronic commission manual
- Delivery managers -17 authorities
- Performance - 8.5 out of 10
- Turnover - £7.2 million

Skills Community

- Learning – 230 attend NEC and CDM
- Skills competencies framework
- Employment and Skills Plans

Term maintenance

- Benchmarking – 8 authorities involved
- Cultural framework – trial at Nottinghamshire
- Best Practice Review – improvement of 64%
- DfT Self assessment - £42 million.

What next?

- Sharing innovation
- Increase efficiencies
- Review needs
- Joint services
- Increase learning and development

www.mhaweb.org.uk